

The MU Scottish Gathering 2012

The details

When is it?

Friday 5th October, arrive for 1pm Depart at 3pm on Saturday 6th October.

- You are welcome to come later on Friday afternoon or Friday evening after work, or just first thing Saturday, please let us know when you will be coming.

Who will be leading the Gathering?

- We are blessed to have Marian Pope our Mothers' Union member of staff, her official job is training; she will be leading several sessions and guiding us along the road.
- We are doubly blessed to have Bishop Mark Strange from Moray, Ross and Caithness, to be our Gathering chaplain. The development of the younger element to the Mothers' Union is close to his heart.
- And trebly blessed to have Trish Heywood to facilitate for us.
- As well as my Scottish committee to help us get organised.

Where is it?

At Tulliallan Police College, Kincardine, Fife FK10 4BE. Tel: 01259 732 000

- It is right beside the Kincardine Bridge. This is the Scottish Police Academy. It is in a castle of some charm but with conference facilities and large grounds. All rooms are ensuite, single or double with some disabled rooms. You can look at their website if you put the address into a Google search.

How do I get there?

There is no train station in Kincardine. The nearest train stations are either Alloa or Dunfermline. The buses to take are either the 15 bus from Alloa or X24 X26 X27 from Dunfermline. Buses go every 20 minutes.

There is a 15/20 minute walk from the bus stop to the college. If you would like a lift we will collect you from the bus stop.

- From Elgin it should take just over 3 ¼ hours by car.
- From Aberdeen 3 ½ hours by train and bus train to Stirling then 15 bus. By car 2 ½ hours.
